SENATOR R. LEWIS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I would just like to remind this group that the goodwill group from McCook is hosting a social hour over at the Executive Building, lower level, after the sessions today and they certainly want to remind all of you that you are welcome and there is nothing to sell or nothing to buy. They just want you to come over and enjoy a few minutes of relaxation. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: We have a motion from Senator Luedtke to be in recess until 2:00 p.m., this afternoon. You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Wait. Senator Luedtke has an announcement.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: I think it just ought to be repeated that we are going to meet at 2 o'clock during this week because of the fact that some committees are in session, others want to have executive sessions. So we will meet at 2 o'clock. For those committees out, if we get bogged down, we will have a Call of the House. They will be asked to come back, they will be asked to return to vote.

PRESIDENT: All right. The motion is to be in recess until two this afternoon. All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. We are in recess until 2:00 p.m.
